Rotarian of the Month

By Michaela Jarrett

Stewart Hartley is this month's Rotarian of the Month. Stewart was born and raised in High Point. After graduating from high school, he went into the Army and served in Korea. After the Army, he came back to High Point and attended High Point College.

Stewart Hartley

In 1957, he joined the High Point Police Department and served as an officer for 27 years. He retired in 1984 as Assistant Chief. Stewart has 2 children and 2 grandchildren, Stewart (11) and Anna (14).

As a retiree, he is even busier now than he was while working! Stewart does a lot of volunteer work with organizations such as Camp Cheerio and past president of the Y's Men's Club. He is also a charter member of CrimeStoppers. You will find Stewart on the golf course at least four times a week. Look out, Tiger Woods!

When you are having lunch with Stewart some Tuesday, ask him where Camp Cheerio got its name.

8 SECONDS ON A BULL NAMED YELLOW JACKET

Only two months until the big event and the B 'n B Committee is getting really excited. The change this year is that Jerome and Tiffany are going to call this the JOURNEY TO THE STARS event and ours will be one in a series of events that they will put on. Journey will be a qualifying event for the PBR, which they tell us, will attract really good young riders trying to make their way to the top 45 best riders in the country.

In the past, when a cowboy came to our event he paid the entry fee and hoped to win money. At Journey, he will win money and qualifying points for the PBR.

Woody has volunteered to host Jack Chiang from Taiwan. Jack is a member of the GSE Team that is visiting our District in March and April. The team will arrive in Area 6 just before the District Conference. Jack is a Sales Representative with AIG Nanshan Insurance in Taiwan.

As soon as Woody heard about them coming, he quickly called Brant Burgiss to volunteer. Woody tells us that he has done this before and it was a great experience for he and his family (especially his kids). Brant has recently hosted GSE team members from Nigeria and Mexico, and he will be hosting Sophie Huang, a Senior Associate with PriceWaterhouseCoopers in Taiwan.

ASK JERRI

By Jerri White, Visiting Columnist (Humor)

Dear Jerri,
Last week I was in Greensboro entertaining clients (Ha, Ha) and I lost my wedding ring. I've looked all over my minivan for it. I'm terrified about telling my wife. She hasn't noticed that it is gone yet.
Do you think that if I tell her that the dog ate it, she will believe me?

Signed,
In the Dog House

Dear Dog,

Likely story.

If I were you, I'd go and buy a cheap wedding band and feed it to the dog. If you do not have a dog, you might want to consider getting one - a medium-sized one with stomach bigger than that of a Yorkie.

Anyway, then take some meat and carefully press the ring into the meat. Now, feed it to the dog. Your next move is to go to the hardware store and purchase a metal detector or borrow one. Hold the detector to the general area where dog's stomach is. You should hear a beeping or clicking sound. If this does not convince your somewhat suspicious spouse, take the dog to Ray Coble, DVM. He can X-ray doggie's guts - that would give you a nice picture, should you need evidence for the lawyers and judge in your divorce case.

In the meantime, go to Crescent Ford and buy a Focus - that should cut down on your inclination for entertaining clients in vans. And, if you insist on continuing this business activity, I know a few good orthopedists.
