THE GARDEN

President Steve, Sarah & Ashley Bruno, Sally Thompson

Our club sponsored a garden for the inclusive autistic class at Southwest Middle School. Sally Thompson, an assistant teacher of the class, spoke to members of the club about trying to educate students about vegetables. Some students thought they came from cans. The garden was planted last spring, and students helped with planting and harvesting. Jim Gayle, Rotarian and owner of Jim Gayle's Lawn and Landscape Maintenance, donated labor to clear the space for the garden and erect a fence.

Pictured here is a young man from Boys and Girls Club of Greater High Point who came out with Holly Ferree and three other kids to help weed the Garden.

WARE SHOALS ROCKS!

Weekly News from Ware Shoals

It doesn't seem to make much difference the Ware Shoals Observer always arrives late in my mailbox. Things move kind of slow there anyway.

The July 7th issue arrived on Saturday. It just was chocked full of exciting news. There was the Fourth of July celebration at the Town Square. The usual celebratory activities took place – the sack race, watermelon- eating contest, pie eating contest, the greasy pig chase, the $5 bill at the top of the greased

THE 4 WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all CONCERNED?

pole, an Elvis impersonator and fireworks. Apparently, the Fourth was fairly orderly in Ware Shoals except for the one man who came from out of town, was arrested on a public drunk charge while sitting out on the rocks at Pitts Park by the Saluda River. The paper did not mention how law enforcement got him off the rocks and into the jail.

Several other special events.

- The Young Men's Gospel Voices had a plate sale to finance their trip to attend the Gospel Explosion in Mississippi. I do not know whether the Gospel is exploding in one town in Mississippi or in the whole state nor did the article say whether there was anything on the plates or mention what kind of plates were being sold – guess it could be paper plates, stoneware plates, china plates, pottery plates, plastic plates, dinner plates, Styrofoam plates, party plates, ceramic plates, dirty plates, melamine plates, charger plates, glass plates.....

- The newly formed Turkey Creek Coon Hunters' Association will hold a "local night hunt on the 17th at the club". Wonder how they'll get the raccoons to show up.
- Day-long classes for barbecue judging are being held throughout SC on July 17. Cost is $35 and includes a barbecue lunch.

- The outdoor movie night on the back lawn of the town square is rescheduled for the 17th. The movie will be announced at a later date.

Finally, there was the ad in the Classified Section. DIVORCE WITH OR WITHOUT CHILDREN. $125.

Ads are not just the same since Mrs. G. L. Graham advertised "For Sale: Swatch of My Hair before it turned gray."
